

INTERNATIONAL MOUNTAIN BICYCLING ASSOCIATION -- GRAPHIC STANDARDS MANUAL

IDENTITY

EXPERIENCE SHOWS THAT A LASTING IDENTITY CLEARLY, IMMEDIATELY AND DISTINCTLY CONVEYS NOT ONLY A COMPANY'S NAME, BUT WHAT THE COMPANY REPRESENTS. THE IMBA IDENTITY IS THE PUBLIC FACE OF THE INTERNATIONAL MOUNTAIN BICYCLING ASSOCIATION. IT IS AN EXPRESSION OF YOUR PERSONALITY, AND A PROMISE OF YOUR PERFORMANCE. THIS GRAPHIC STANDARDS MANUAL WAS DESIGNED TO PROVIDE RECOMMENDATIONS THAT, WHEN PROPERLY IMPLEMENTED, REINFORCE THE PERSONALITY, STRENGTHS, IDEALS AND LONG-TERM PERSPECTIVE OF YOUR ORGANIZATION.

INTERNATIONAL MOUNTAIN BICYCLING ASSOCIATION

IDENTITY -- Logo + naming

With the initial launch of the new IMBA logo the name should be used whenever possible to help build consistency and recognition for IMBA organization. Use your best judgement, and be considerate of your audience when determining whether or not to include the IMBA name.

IDENTITY -- Clear space

A certain amount of clear space should surround the IMBA logo on all applications to help separate it from other communication elements such as text, headlines, photography, illustration or the edge of the piece or document. Observing the area of clear space lends prominence and readability to this important graphic element.

IDENTITY -- Colors

The IMBA logo should be printed in a solid color (black is preferred). However, when an alternate color is desired, you should select from the IMBA color palette (examples shown).

If you wish to choose a color outside the palette use caution that you do not effect the readability of the identity. Stick with darker and more muted earth tones. Avoid bright, loud, and light colors, or colors that will effect the readability of the logo.

IDENTITY -- Contrasting Backgrounds

The IMBA logo should be printed in a single solid color (black is preferred) but some applications may require the logo to be presented differently. The options provided should accommodate most situations.

* Option one should be used in situations where the background details may interfere with the visibility of the IMBA letters.

* Option four is provide for special instances where variety and/or a contrasting element may be appropriate.

OPTION 1
(reversed B/W + red)

IDENTITY -- Special situations

Horizontal version: This is to be used in special situations where conventional version of the logo will not fit.

COLOR

WHEN USED CONSISTENTLY, COLOR IS ONE OF THE EASIEST-TO-SPOT IDENTITY ELEMENTS, DRAWING ATTENTION TO LETTERS, BROCHURES, MAILERS, APPAREL, TCHOTCHKE ITEMS, AND OTHER FORMS OF IMBA COLLATERAL. EARTH TONES WERE SPECIFICALLY CHOSEN FOR THEIR REFERENCE TO THE ENVIRONMENT AND THEIR ALIGNMENT TO THE SPIRIT AND PURPOSE OF THE IMBA ORGANIZATION.

COLOR -- IMBA color palette

When reproducing the IMBA Colors in print, broadcast or Web applications, match their PANTONE® equivalents as closely as possible. These colors can be found in the PANTONE® Color Standards.

ICONOGRAPHY

SOMETIMES, LESS IS MORE. ICONOGRAPHY CAN PROVIDE CLARITY AND FOCUS WHEN TRYING TO COMMUNICATE AN IMPORTANT IDEA. THEY ALSO PROVIDE GREATER OPPORTUNITIES TO EXPRESS THE IMBA BRAND.

ICONOGRAPHY-- variations of usage

There is a variety of ways that the iconography can be used. However, early on it will be important to keep the language attached to the iconography to help create awareness of the IMBA mission. Over time the icons will be able to stand alone.

There will always be exceptions to the rules, simply be sensitive to your audience.

Each icon has a specific color:

TYPOGRAPHY -- Specimens and usage

The IMBA typography system consists of a single typeface, Conduit, and its family of weights. This typeface should be used at every touch point of your brand. There are three weights, each including an italic version.

Often, it is useful to have a secondary typeface to add variety, and contrast for emphasizing a point. Captions, legal information, and/or technical information are other good opportunities for your secondary typeface to be used.

In order to be economical, and simplify your overall graphic system, we recommend you use the Mac system font Letter Gothic as your secondary type face.
